

The background features a large, light blue watermark of the Brown County Christian Academy logo. The logo is a shield-shaped crest with a crown on top. A banner at the top of the shield reads "Brown County". The shield is divided into four quadrants. The top-left quadrant contains a cross with a flame above it. The top-right quadrant contains a cross with a flame above it. The bottom-left quadrant contains a cross with a flame above it. The bottom-right quadrant contains a cross with a flame above it. A banner at the bottom of the shield reads "Christian Academy". The word "Via" is written in a decorative font on the left side of the shield, and "Vita" is written on the right side. At the bottom of the shield, the word "Veritas" is written in a decorative font. The number "6:33" is written in a small font on the right side of the shield.
